Greek is required for all Master of Divinity students and Masters of Arts in Religion students concentrating in Biblical Studies. The Greek requirement is satisfied by passing the Greek competency exam designed by Southern Seminary professors. Students have an option on how to prepare for the Greek competency exam

I will meet my Greek requirement by:

- On Campus course: July 12 – August 27, 2010
Hours: see below
Location: Voigt Classroom 1
- Greek Competency Test (with proctor) – contact Dr. Brent Driggers at bdriggers@ltss.edu or 803-461-3217 for approval.
- Fall and Spring 2010-11 Academic Year.
(Note: This option necessitates delaying first-year required courses that use Greek which can also delays the taking of required Hebrew courses.)

Most students choose to prepare for the competency test by attending the on-campus Summer Greek Session.

Required books:

1. N. Clayton Croy, A Primer of Biblical Greek (Eerdmans, 2007).
2. A Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament and Other Early Christian Literature. 3d ed. Edited by Bauer, Danker, Arndt, and Gingrich (University of Chicago Press, 2000).
3. Novum Testamentum Graece. 27th ed. Edited by E. Nestle, K. Aland et al (Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft, 1995).
Note: An “interlinear” New Testament will not be acceptable.
4. Matthew S. DeMoss, A Pocket Dictionary for the Study of New Testament Greek (InterVarsity Press, 2001).
5. William D. Mounce, Biblical Greek Laminated Sheet (Zondervan, 2005).
