

STUDENT NAME: _____

LTSS SCHEDULE INFORMATION FALL 2010

September 8, 2010 through December 15, 2010

EXPLANATION OF SCHEDULING CODES

J=Junior Course M=Middler Course S=Senior Course 1=Junior Mar 2=Senior MAR

REQ=Required Course * =Some students =see catalog
ELECT=Elective

DIVISIONS

BI = Biblical Studies CM = Church & Ministry HT = History & Systematic Theology
ID= Inter-Divisional Courses and Other Requirements

DAYS OF THE WEEK

M=Monday T=Tuesday W=Wednesday R=Thursday F=Friday

DATES TO REMEMBER

Orientation: Tuesday, September 7, 2010.
Classes begin: Wednesday, September 8, 2010
Chapel Worship: 10:00am Monday-Wednesday, Friday : Thursday 6:00pm with Eucharist
Special occasions will be announced

Courses/Schedule/Professor/ Classrooms

See catalog for complete course description.

Course ID	Credits	Course Name/Short Description	Professor	Schedule (see grid)
REQ* BI 000	0*	New Testament Greek	Driggers
REQPT		Description: Basic introduction to Koine Greek used in the New Testament. Translation and analyzing for exegesis.
REQ:J,1,* BI 101	3	Biblical Hebrew	Luker
		Description: Introduction to Hebrew grammar and vocabulary.
REQ:J,1,* BI 107	1	Greek Readings	Driggers/ Peterson
		Description: Further practice in the use of basic language tools and translating New Testament Greek texts. Prerequisite: successful completion of BI 000
REQ:J,1 BI 150	3	Introduction to the Bible	Driggers
		Description: Introduction for basic content of biblical books in the canon, along with intro to hermeneutics and exegesis and issues of nature, inspiration, & unity of Scripture.
REQ:M,2 BI 201	3	Hebrew Bible: Literature & Theology	Luker
		Description: An in-depth study of Torah, Prophets, or Writings in a three-year rotation. Prerequisite: BI 201 or equivalent (MAR not in Biblical Track may base their study on the English test)
ELECT BI 259	3	Archeology and the Old Testament	Luker
		Description: A study of what archeology has contributed to the understanding of the Hebrew Bible and its interpretation for teaching and preaching in the parish, with special attention to recent discoveries. Includes audio-visual visits to the various sites in Israel.
REQ:S,2* BI 451	3	New Testament Theology	Peterson
		Description: Study of New Testament theology as a pastoral and theological discipline. Emphasis on the unity-in-diversity is explored with regard to Christology, ecclesiology, and eschatology. Prerequisite: Completion of either BI164 or BI 274. Completion of both is preferred.
ELECT BI 463	3	Gospel of John (Greek Only)	Peterson
		Description: A study of the 4th Gospel based on the Greek Text. Particular attention given to the Gospel's rich theology, to its creative use of language and narrative in forming disciples, and to the role of Johannine texts in preaching and ministry. Prerequisite: BI 150 and BI 000

	Course ID	Credits	Course Name/Short Description	Professor	Schedule (see grid)
REQ:J	CM 101	1	Worship Practicum	Hawkins
			Description: Practicum focuses on both chanting and reading scripture in public worship
REQ:J,1*	CM 103	1	Field Education	Carroll
			Description: Field Education in the junior year focuses on worship leadership and visitation in the parish.
REQ:J,1*	CM 141	3	Theology of Pastoral Care	Everett
			Description: Study of the e nature and function of pastoral care from a theological perspective. Students utilize insights from theology, pastoral care, scripture, and the behavioral sciences to develop a comprehensive model for pastoral care
REQ:M,2	CM 201	3	Introduction to Christian Worship	Hawkins
			Description: Introduction of God's people gathered for worship. Course explores the nature of Christian community, the Word which calls the church together, and ways that the church celebrates the life-giving Word. Lutheran liturgical and theological practice provide a referent & context for the course but other major traditions are investigated.
REQ:M,2*	CM 203	1	Field Education	Carrol
			Description: Middler field education emphasizes Christian educational ministry in the parish.
ELECT	CM 205	3	Multicultural Ministry in Context	Carroll
			Description: Attention will be given to the challenges and blessings of ministry among people of color & language other than English within the context of the US & the Virgin Islands. Reflection on contextual theologians Douglas Hall & Darrell Guder conversation with the ethnic-specific directors of the ELCA Multicultural Ministries Program Unit regarding strategies. Students in other than Lutheran traditions are encouraged to attend in order to enrich the class' theological conversation
ELECT	CM 209	0	Choir	Johnson
ELECT	CM 221	3	Preaching Occasional Services	Hannan
			Description: Attention given to exploring the possibilities and challenges of preact such as funerals and weddings. Prerequisite: CM 122
ELECT	CM 222	3	Preaching, Paul	Hannan
			Description: Students will investigate and present the homiletically possibilities and challenges for preaching on the Pauline writings of the New Testament. The course will require preparation of exegetical papers & preaching on selected lectionary texts. Prereq: CM122
REQ:M,2*	CM 261		Educational Ministry: Faith Formation in the Parish	McArver
			Description: Explores faith formation in the church in the context of congregational life and contemporary culture. It addresses basic purposes and objectives; foundational disciplines; characteristics of learners and stages of growth; curriculum development selection, and use; the teaching learning process; Confirmation Ministry; overseeing a parish education ministry program and evaluation.
REQ:*	CM 271	3	Leadership and Baptist Polity	Adjunct
Baptist Students			Description: Attention will be given to the minister's role as leader in the context of autonomous local congregational polity. Student will study administrative and organizational styles, facilitation of planning and strategic mission; and working with volunteers, committees, ministry teams, and small groups. Cooperation with community and denominational groups as well as stewardship finance, and business procedures will be covered.
REQ*	CM 471	3	Parish Administration and Leadership	Everett
			Description: Attention to the day-t-day- operation of the congregation, including leadership development, polity, congregational functions and structure, procedures and resources for parish operation, organizational development, working with church councils and committees, working with volunteers and employees, planning, community relations, and local ecumenism. Class participation, reading, parish experience, case studies, interviews, and guest presentations. Prerequisite: Senior MDiv or consent of instructor

	Course ID	Credits	Course Name/Short Description	Professor	Schedule (see grid)
REQ:J.1	HT 101	3	History of Christianity Description: Survey of Christian movement from its origin in the Mediterranean to its place as a modern worldwide religion. Emphasis directed toward major personalities, places and events of church history.	Havens
ELEC: REQ:*	HT 201	3	Religion in America Description: A survey of the historical development of Christianity in the United States. The primary focus of the course will be to study the constantly changing interrelationships between religion and American culture and to examine ways in which these relationships continue to affect life and ministry in an increasingly pluralistic contemporary society.	McArver
ELECT	HT 240	3	Christian Spirituality Description: Introduction to spirituality within the Christian tradition. Course examines a wide spectrum of historical personalities and models of spiritualities.	Havens
REQ:M,2	HT 251	3	Introduction of Theology Description: First of a two course introduction to theology as the thinking which necessarily accompanies the life and practice of the Christian church. Surveys basic themes and concepts in Christian theological tradition and examines a variety of ecumenical perspectives on Christian faith.	Yeago
ELECT REQ*	HT 273	3	History and Tradition in the African American Tradition Description: not available at this time	Thomas
ELECT	HT 420	3	God, Suffering and Evil Description: Where is God in the midst of great suffering? Why does a good and loving God permit evil to afflict creation? How should Christians live in the midst of suffering and evil? This seminar will take up the challenges put to the faith by what is commonly called theodicy. Juniors may enroll with the permission of the instructor.	Bell
ELECT	HT 467	3	Theology of Salvation Description: This course will look at issues related to the Third Article of the Creed. Topics covered may include the work of the Spirit; the relationship of salvation, sacrament, and church; the nature of justification and its relationship with sanctification and the dynamics of the new life in the Spirit. Prerequisite: HT 251 completion or enrollment	Yeago
REQ:S,2*	HT 480	3	Christian Ethics I Description: How the Christian life arises out of and is shaped by central theological convictions and ecclesial practices. Prerequisite: Open only to Middlers and seniors except with permission of professor.	Bell
REQ:1	ID 406	0	MAR Orientation	McArver
REQ:2*	ID 407	0	MAR Colloquium	McArver

Advisor Approval: _____

Dean Approval (if over 19 credit hours): _____

